CAMPAIGN OPENED IN ADAMS

GREAT REFORM MASS MEETING LAST THURSDAY EVENING.

Emery, Black and Creasy Make a Most Favorable Impression in Adams.

The great fight for honest government in Pennsylvania was opened in Adams county last Thursday evening with a great mass meeting in the Court House. The day had been as bad as bad weather could make it and the evening kept up the day's record but notwithstanding these conditions a crowd gathered that comfortably filled the room and listened attentively and sympathetically to every word spoken.

Democratic County Chairman S. Miley Miller met the party at Harrisburg and accompanied them to this place arriving on the 1.55 p. m. train on the Reading. Lincoln-Republican County Chairman Dan S. Coleman with a number of Democrats and Lincoln-Republicans met the party at the depot. The rain kept party at Eagle Hotel the entire afternoon, where Lewis Emery, Jr., Democratic Lincoln-Republican candidate for Governor and Wm. T. Creasy, candidate for Auditor General held a kind of informal reception for a very large number of our citizens and firemen. The evening train brought Jere S. Black, candidate for Lieutenant Governor from York with Horace Keesey, Democratic candidate for Congress.

The Citizens Band of Gettysburg shortly before 8 o'clock escorted the speakers and a large number of their enthusiastic supporters from the Eagle Hotel to the Court House. After music by the band the following officers of meeting were announced, Dr. P. M. Bickle, President of meeting, Hon. Theodore McAllister and Wm. A. McIlhenney presiding Vice Presidents. Other Vice Presidents were

Hon. Chas. H. Duttera, Hon. Wm. T. Ziegler, Hon. Geo. L. Rice, Hon. Wm. A. Martin, Dr. E. K. Foreman, Calvin Hamilton, Geo. W. Lawrence, Prof. Aaron Shelly, Hon. A. F. White, H. L. Bream, D. C. Rudisill, C. H. Richter, David Deardorff, Ferdinand Warner, Dr. J. C. Tudor, Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal, J. Kerr Lott, J. C. Pittenturf, J. Ed. Schriver and I. S. Duttera. The following were secretaries of meeting: Wm. H. Fowler, L. H. Rice, Wm. C. Crismer, Frank Slonaker, E. A. Weaver, Esq., Jacob Morrison, James Carns, John Weaver, Jacob Toot, G. W. Walter, Esq., Riley Harnish and W. F. Gilliland.

The first speaker introduced by Dr. Bickle was Farmer Creasy who spoke on subject of "Taxation," clearly demonstrating the inequalities of taxation under the present laws. How the corporations pay from 1 to 3 mills tax while the individuals pay from 12 to 15 mills. How banks are given an option of two rates and always take the way that requires the least money. He made it clear how the Machine had for years and years evaded carrying out the requirements of the constitution on the subject. He said for twelve years he had fought in the House at Harrisburg for uniform taxation but every bill of the kind was killed in committee by order of the Machine. He said the voters must see to it that such a legislature is sent to Harrisburg as will support the reform executive officials and pass statutes that will be necessary to bring about uniformity in taxation and end the number of other ills which this State suffers.

Jere S. Black was next introduced and his speech was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause. In opening he referred to fact of nearness of Adams county people to himself and of his frequent visits to court here. He explained that the issue facing every voter was one of politics but of morals. The issue was honest government. On the one side of this issue are the people, on the other side the Machine, the Pa. Railroad and the Standard Oil. These agencies had sought for years to delude the morals of men and had done great injury to communities. But the issue was a square one this year about which there could be no hedging. The voter who favored honest government, self government could help to bring to an end the grossest Machine misrule by supporting the Fusion ticket. He asked every Democrat to vote for Lewis Emery, Jr. The speaker had always been a Democrat and expected to be a Democrat as long as he lived but the present issue was not one of politics but of morals and the election of Lewis Emery, Jr., meant that the people would come to their own, honest government and equal justice. When Lewis Minnigh at end of room interrupted by a prediction that the people would win by 100,000 majority Mr. Black responded "My friend, I predict that the people will roll up a majority of 200,000 for honest government". As to the Congressional fight he referred to the bold fight of President Roosevelt against corporations and trusts and to the fact that 15 of the Republican Congressmen from Pennsylvania had entered into a caucus to oppose Roosevelt in one of his moves and advised voters to find out whether their Congressman was in that caucus and that Horace Keesey would more strenuously support the President's cause than any member of that caucus.

After music by the band Dr. Bickle introduced Lewis Emery, Jr., who declared that if the people elected him Governor and gave him a legislature to support him with remedial legislation that he would not only lift the lid but would break it from its hinges, let light into every department of government and would bring about a condition of equal rights to all, special privileges to none. There was no mincing of words by the speaker. The Pa. Railroad and the Standard Oil were the creators of the special privileges that have bound this great State for more than a generation. To illustrate this fact he asked how much oil was selling for in this place and was told 15 cents a gallon. Then he explained that special privileges given to the Standard Oil by the Pa. Railroad made it impossible for the independent company he was the head of, the greatest rival of the Standard, to sell oil in Pennsylvania, but getting it to sea coast through their own pipe line they were able to send their oil to Germany and have it sold there for six and a half cents a gallon. He explained clearly how the Republican Machine of which Quay had been the head for a number of years but now Penrose did not represent the Republican party. That the Pa. Railroad and Standard Oil gave the orders to Penrose, the big boss, who gave the orders to the little boss in each county and he declared that legislative candidates were vouchered for by the little boss to the big boss who could be depended upon to be subservient to the big boss and the interests from whom he got his orders and money. In answer to his question whether there was a little boss in Adams, the quick reply "yes" came. No promises made by Republican platform would be allowed to be made good by the Big Boss and corporations and trusts back of him. Mr. Emery referred to Capitol building and that Mr. Green, the supervisor of construction had made the statement that $3,000,000 would have been enough to have furnished a $4,000,000 building, and Mr. Emery promised to probe the Capitol scandal to the depths, recover all money improperly spent and where wrong was found to see that looters were criminal stripes. Mr. Emery was applauded again and again and impressed every one with his earnestness and that his cause was the people's cause.

County Chairmen Miller and Coleman assured the candidates that the people knew their friends in the present fight and would roll up a majority in Adams better than the 1,208 given Berry last year.

Sweet Corn Crop for 1906.

The packing of sweet corn for Adams Co. is all done at the Wine-brenner Canning Factory of this place: work of putting on labels and shipping out is going forward. The output is from two to four car loads a week. The season for packing sweet corn was practically a short one as compared to last year, it being a remarkable yield. Of the 590 acres planted in sweet corn this year there was an approximate average yield of one and a quarter tons to the acre. There was a yield of 730 tons of corn for which $9 per ton was paid and produced about 500,000 ears of corn. This was due to the fact, there was a great deal of corn that did not fill out on the cob, and did not mature full ears. The shortage all told in this crop over last crop is more than one hundred tons of corn and about 150,000 ears, all these decreases in the crop left less money in the town than otherwise would have been.

The farmers had taken the usual care necessary for the growing of sweet corn but two weeks of dry weather at the start and two weeks rain near pulling time, were very much against the growing crop.

Piano Durability.

A piano may be ever so charming in tone and appearance, but unless it has that lasting and staying quality it will finally prove a disappointment. If you pay a little more for a genuine Weaver Piano, which is both attractive and lasting, you will congratulate yourself on the wisdom of your selection in after years.

COLLEGE WINS FROM PENN

GETTYSBURG THE VICTOR IN TIE GAME WITH SCORE 6-6.

Our Team Out Plays and Out Punks Their Opponents in a Clev- erly Fought Game.

The greatest athletic event in the seventy-five years history of Gettysburg College came off last Wednesday afternoon on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, when the Gettysburg foot ball team won a virtual victory over the University of Pennsylvania team by a tie score of 6 to 6. It was thought to be a great score when last year the score was 16-6, the best ever made with Penn, but this year's victory outclasses all previous athletic events in the history of the college and was an event that called forth more noise and demonstration than has been seen in this place for years.

The line up in the great game won for the glory of Gettysburg College was as follows:

Guy Stock, '10 of Baltimore Left End
Edgar A. Snyder, '07 of Chapman's Run Left Tackle
Jesse E. Beuner, '07 of Gettysburg Left Guard
H. A. Stouffer, '08 of York Centre
B. A. Chamberlain, '08 of Trenton Right Guard
Jesse F. Swartz, '08 of Spring Forge Right Tackle
Peszek, '10 of Armenia Right End
L. L. Lammer, '07 of Frostburg Quarter Back
P. R. Sieber, '07 of Gettysburg Left Half Back
S. H. Pownall, '08 of Landsville Right Half Back
Ed. R. Brumbaugh, '07 of Roaring Spring Full Back

Penn's team, the city papers said, did not represent the strongest team because four good players were not in the line up but the team was identically the same as the one which defeated Lehigh so easily several days before and was supposed to be strong enough to carry Penn to victory in all her preliminary contests. Lack of team work and inability to think quick were said to be the glaring defects of Penn's team.

The truth was that at every point Gettysburg out played Penn, the ball was handled well while Penn's team did much fumbling. We excelled in several cleverly executed forward passes and they were not in it with our team in punting. That a kick by Sieber did not send ball between posts and another kick was blocked only prevented the score being 14 in our favor.

Sieber played in his usual magnificent form and easily out punted Penn's man and in spite of the fact that he received a cut in first half over the left eye which took four stitches to close, with head bound up he played the game with great brilliancy. Lammer in the second half had his ear injured. The first half of 20 minutes ended in a score of 2 to 0 in favor of Gettysburg. Sieber having made the first down. In the second half Penn scored a touch-down and kicked goal. Then after much punting Sieber by a drop kick from the 30 yard line sent the ball between the posts and tied the score. Sieber made another attempt to drop kick goal from 20 yard line but the kick was blocked and second half was called with Gettysburg in possession of the ball.

The news was wired here as the game progressed and a great crowd of students held their breaths as the startling news of victory was received and when the result was announced the student body just let loose. The bell was rung and in a great serpentine line they paraded the streets singing "six to six." After supper they had a pajama demonstration, the greatest of its kind ever given here. It was headed by a band as the streets were paraded and the music was drowned with the cheers and noise of the boys. A number of firemen helped the noise along. It ended with the greatest noise possible in the square, everybody carrying his head high over the victory of having out played old Penn.

Firemen's Souvenir Book.

A handsome Gettysburg souvenir book of 20 pages illustrated with a large number of pictures of the town and battlefield was presented to every delegate to the 27th annual convention of State Firemen's Association. In doing this the custom at other conventions was followed. The book in every way was a highly creditable publication and was much appreciated by the visitors.

That is part of the story of the book, the other part is as follows: R. C. Miller had charge of publication of book, gathering data, advertisements and pictures. It was thought that it would make a book of 40 pages. When the matter was taken to a city printer it was found that it would take 70 pages and there was not enough money in sight to pay for book of such size. There was the choice either to abandon the printing of book or seek other advertisements. The Scranton book of last year shown contributor contained four or five pages of political pictures and advertising, so in the stress for money to bring book out the Emery Campaign Committee was asked to take an advertisement which they agreed to do. The Republican State Campaign Committee was next visited and they would not consider the project and when told that Emery would be represented in book, answered that "Mr. Andrews didn't see anything in it." So the Emery pages had sole possession and everybody was pleased that the book was made possible thereby, except the town Penrose gang, who would rather have seen the book go in a hole because Andrews couldn't see anything in it for the good of the firemen, than that the town should have had the credit for it through the Emery advertisement.

Letter to J. M. Warner

Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: Here's a tale with three or four tails to it.

Professor Irvine has an Academy, Mercersburg, Penn. He paints the floors in summer vacation. It used to take 50 gallons of paint. There were two paint-stores there, and he used to buy one year of one, next year of the other 50 gallons year after year. Now he paints Devoe's 50 gallons and the difference is a saving of $150 a year.

H. C. Fallon was one of those dealers, good man: but he wouldn't take Devoe's so we turned to the other. J. A. Boyd, but Fallon has found it necessary to get a good paint to compete with Devoe. He got one of the eight honest paints. He has a big hardware store and is doing an excellent hardware business; but Boyd, of course, has the run on paint—he's a little hardware man.

We don't care how little or big a man is, if he wants good paint and is active and sound.

Yours truly

F. W. Devoe & Co.

FIREMEN'S WEEK SPOILED

IT RAINED BECAUSE IT RAINED TO GETTYSBURG'S LOSS.

Many Fire Companies Did Not Come on Account of Rain and Parade Was Called Off.

The firemen of Pennsylvania had too much sand to take their disappointment in any other way than a good natured way—at least that is the way the big majority greeted the rainy weather as they marched up and down the streets in the rain of last week singing "It rained just because it rained" and "We are here just because we are here." Of course there were knockers over the mess resulting from the rain but then some humans can't be happy unless they are knocking, even at rain that falls at inopportune moments.

The Pennsylvania Firemen had evidences on every side of the work done to welcome them. The town was never more beautifully decorated than last week. Hundreds of yards of bunting adorned the buildings and fifty great flags loaned by the National Government made most beautiful decorations wherever put up. Two of these flags were on the Engine House, two on the Court House and two on Xavier Hall and the rest were scattered in different parts of the town.

More arches greeted the firemen than ever erected on any previous occasion. One at Eagle Hotel on Washington street, one on Chambersburg street at City Hotel, one on Carlisle street half way to W. M. depot, one on York street at Globe Hotel and one on Baltimore street at Central Hotel and four arches in Square facing each street. These arches were covered and lit with electric lights and at night presented a most pleasing appearance and on each of the four principal streets there were strings of incandescent lights which made our streets look very attractive at night.

To each delegate to the Firemen's Convention there was presented a very pretty badge containing in miniature the Brooklyn monument on battlefield of the soldier and fireman. Each delegate was also given a copy of the souvenir book and a free trolley ticket. On Wednesday evening there was a ball with music by college orchestra. Every evening there was a band concert in the square for the firemen. The Citizens Band gave first concert on Monday evening, the Shamokin band on Tuesday evening, the Mt. Joy band on Wednesday evening and Chester band on Thursday evening. The Citizens Band closed week with a concert on Saturday evening.

The proceedings of the Firemen's Convention published on second page had been accompanied with frequent showers. The convention closing, the drenching rains began and when Thursday—the big day—dawned the town was one big mud puddle. It was a question whether parade should come off. The visiting firemen seemed to be anxious for it, so Chief Marshall Henry Stewart and his Aides gathered at western part of town at time appointed in afternoon and waited for companies to report for the parade. Several reported. The parade started up Chambersburg street and all the time the rain began to descend more copiously. Following the Chief Marshall and staff came the Eagle Chemical Co. No. 1 of Hanover and the Butler Fire Company. On the way to the square the Moyamensing Hose and Ladder Company of Chester joined in the parade. They were met in the square by the Gettysburg Fire Department, the Silsby engine in charge of J. G. Slonaker and the hook and ladder truck in charge of Chas. S. Munner. The rain was a torrent by this time and any further parading was called off. There was a good sized crowd in town and they took shelter in stores and under awnings. According to reports there were more fire companies in Harrisburg that decided not to complete journey to Gettysburg in rain than were on the ground and a number of companies were turned back at York. If the rain had not interfered unquestionably Thursday would have been as big a day as had been expected.

A number of county organizations were here ready for the parade. Littlestown Band and Alpha Fire Company of Littlestown, the East Berlin Fire Company, with the Spring Grove Band and the Committee acknowledged the compliment of a serenade from latter band. The Higlerville Band was also here. There were quite a number of other bands, Shamokin, Mt. Joy, Chester and Highspire, and several drum corps and representatives from a dozen or more fire companies.

When it was realized that there was to be no let up in the rain the firemen and crowd hastened to get away to their homes and town was deserted by Friday.

The Executive Committee met on Monday evening to take up the matter of the award of prizes and concluded it would be best to make awards, and following was agreed to:

$25 was awarded to the Middletown Hose Co. No. 2 for the best darktown brigade, this company having reported that they were fully prepared with all the accessories for this performance. $50 was awarded to the largest uniformed company, the Moyamensing Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 of Chester and $50 to the same company for the best combination hose and chemical, their apparatus being of the latest and best pattern. It was decided that the method of deciding which company was entitled to prize for coming greatest distance was by an air line and prize of $50 was awarded to the Good Will Hose Co. No. 2 of Butler, Pa.

Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Barnite were tendered a delightful reception upon assuming charge of St. Peter's Lutheran congregation at York. After music, addresses and refreshments the new minister was presented with a purse of money as evidence of the good will he will meet in his work in his new charge.

Pickpocket Arrested.

John B. McGrim of Ebersburg, Pa., was arrested on Tuesday evening of last week charged with picking pockets. Several of the Homestead firemen dressed in the bright red shirts had their suspicions aroused and believed the fellow had made some attempts to go through their pockets. They put John J. Cotter, a former chief of police of Homestead on to their suspicions. They gathered a crowd together at the Eagle Hotel, giving the suspected McGrim an opportunity. He took advantage of the situation and Policeman Cotter caught McGrim with his hand in his hip pocket. A crowd gathered and Cotter and several firemen took hold of McGrim and took him up street, turning him over to Detective Charles H. Wilson who placed him in jail. Mr. Wilson found on McGrim two pocket books and a gold watch, all of which the prisoner claimed as his own property and no claimants of same could be found. Upon hearing before Justice Hill McGrim was held for Court for robbery from the person, bail being fixed at $500. On Thursday a brother and friend of the prisoner arrived and put up the cash necessary to secure bail.

THE FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

Dr. De Costa Who Rushes to Philadelphia Fires to Succor Firemen Made Honorary Member.

The work of the 27th Annual Convention of the State Firemen's Association begun on Tuesday morning was finished by the middle of afternoon of Wednesday and at that time adjourned sine die. During the sessions Xavier Hall was comfortably filled. At all times there was close attention and quick dispatch of business.

Tuesday morning as stated last week was given over to the address of welcome by W. C. Sheely, Esq., and response by retiring president Aaron J. Henry and Geo. W. Berntheiser.

The afternoon session began with the presentation of a gavel to President Henry by H. C. Fehrer of Scranton. Routine work was then taken up, such as reading report on credentials, the report of the President, the report of the honorary vice presidents, the report of the executive committee and report of the Committee on Law and Legislation. These reports after being read were accepted and ordered to be spread upon the minutes.

The report around which much interest centered was one on the question whether a Firemen's Home should be erected for disabled firemen in the State. The report of the committee having charge of the matter recommended that the matter be deferred for the present. The report was accepted and committee discharged and upon motion action was deferred on report until the convention of 1907 so that all members might at leisure read report and more intelligently act on same.

Under new business a motion was made that the constitution and by-laws be changed so as to pay a death benefit of $75 to every individual member. A committee of five was appointed to consider the matter and report on Wednesday morning. The session closed with the nominations for the respective elective offices and there was no contest over any of these offices except for vice president. There were nine nominations and only four to be elected or voted for.

Wednesday.

The morning session was opened by Rev. Edward H. True. The Treasurer's report was read showing $1,958 dues paid in for the Gettysburg convention, indicating an attendance of 979, and all the officials said that was the largest turn out of delegates at any convention ever held. The secretary's lengthy report was read. The report of the obituary committee upon the death of seven members during the year was read and adopted.

The committee having charge of amendment to constitution and by-laws so as to provide $75 death benefit reported favorable on the subject. The report of the committee was adopted by over a two-thirds vote, thus putting it into force at once.

A motion was adopted thanking the Firemen of Gettysburg, the clergy and all other citizens who in any way contributed to the success of the 27th annual convention.

The morning session was a short one, the hall being vacated and the election officers stationed in the ticket booth on first floor where ballots were received. The office was opened for ballots for four or five hours. In that time 763 delegates voted. The result of election was as follows:

Wm. H. Sharah of Bradford, President. Thos. E. Jones of Pittsburg, Geo. B. Frankentfield of Clifton Heights, J. B. Hellman of Pottsville, and John Banks of Steelton Vice presidents. W. W. Wunder of Reading Recording Secretary, who has held that position since organization of association; Jas. A. Green of Carlisle Corresponding Secretary. A. L. Reichenback of Allentown, Treasurer, and Delegate to National Association, Aaron J. Henry.

The place of next meeting was hotly contested, Pittsburg winning with 324 votes to 227 for Shamokin and 190 for Chester.

An interesting incident of the morning was the presentation of a beautiful gold watch and chain to the retiring president, Aaron J. Henry, who was overwhelmed by the gift.

At the afternoon session the officers elected assumed their offices. The new president, Wm. H. Sharrah, announced all the appointive officials and the members on the various committees.

In the list of honorary vice presidents, E. P. Wisotzky headed the list for Adams county, whose duty is to report every fire company to the state organization, the chief and secretaries of these companies, number of men, their standing and equipment.

One of the most thrilling incidents came immediately before adjournment when a Philadelphian arose to propose an honorary member. He said that he was going to name a great surgeon of Philadelphia, one who had the interests of firemen at heart, one who at his own expense had all fire alarms sent to his office, who as soon as an alarm came rushed to the scene of the fire, who was often to be seen alighting from a cab among the first on ground, who stayed there until all danger was over, who was the first to give succor to any fireman overcome or attention to one wounded, who was beloved by every fireman of the city of Philadelphia and that man was Dr. J. Chalmers De Costa. He was made an honorary member with a ringing unanimous vote and convention then adjourned.

Nixon Field.

The Board of Trustees of Gettysburg College at their June meeting put in charge of a committee the matter of an athletic fee and it was supposed that when college would open this fee would be collected from each student and there would be a fund for athletics. The committee however has not got things going. The foot ball management had to solicit outside aid.

Nixon Field will have to be used this fall for all scheduled games with fence down at three points for a space sufficient to drive eight horses abreast. The management of the various athletic departments are expected to make ends meet under such conditions. It is said that next spring things will be doing and that Nixon Field will be greatly enlarged and newly fenced. It can not be done too soon for the encouragement of athletics at Gettysburg College.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering. Days of misery, nights of unrest. The distress of urinary troubles. To find relief and cure? No reason why any reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists: price, 50 cents per box.

Paint Adds Value to Property

For every dollar's worth of paint—good paint—you put on your house, you add several dollars to its value, for the difference in price which property in good repair will bring over a shabby building is by no means measured by the actual cost of the improvement.

In this calculation we have not included the insurance feature—the saving of the property from decay.

Good paint looks well, protects well, lasts well.

There are many imitations of paint which do none of these things, yet cost as much or more than straight white lead and linseed oil, the best paint.

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Under Physicians Six Months But Grew Worse—Some Said Face Would Be Marked for Life—Now Without a Blemish.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS.

"As I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. In six months I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my face so thick that I could hardly put a pin on me without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and then it got in my eye. I then went to another doctor. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did its work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was.

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever.

"I told all my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura can do. It is a sure cure for eczema. (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 641 Cherrier Place Camden, N. J., April 25, 1905."

CREASY AND BERRY A TEAM

When They Hitch Up Together Vast

Graft of New Capitol Will Be Revealed.

When Representative William T. Creasy, Democratic nominee for auditor general, shall be installed in office, he and State Treasurer Berry will constitute a team that can be relied upon to turn on the light fully for the purpose of revealing the entire extent of the colossal buncoing done to the commonwealth in making the new state capitol cost more than twice the $1,000,000 for which the law said it was to be "completed." Under McNichol-Penrose-Martin conditions the latest report from the auditor general is for 1904, and from that it appears that $703,194.29 was spent upon the capitol in that year. Of this sum $252,741.83 went to John Sanderson, of Philadelphia, who has supplied or will supply nearly everything that can be properly called movable furniture, as well as such permanent fixtures as the carved facings and finishings of the windows and doors, and of the fireplace and walls.

This Sanderson firm will get the greater part of the four or five millions of the expenditures over and above the original appropriation for the capitol. Another item in the 1904 amount is $453,412.46 paid to the Lancaster county Republican politicians forming the Pennsylvania Construction company, of Marietta, for the metallic filing cases in the departmental rooms. About a million dollars is the estimated cost of those cases, and it comes out of the general fund without an appropriation having been made for it. Such is the manner of getting the payment for everything in or on the capitol except the bare walls, which took all of the $1,000,000 appropriated by the legislature. The public buildings and grounds commissioners have worked apart and separately from the capitol commission, and have supplied the actual furniture as well as the so-called "furnishings" without limit, under the claim that the law allows this to be done as long as an unappropriated dollar of the ten million surplus remains in the treasury.

Assuming that the law permitted all of the original appropriation to be expended upon a "completed," but unfurnished, building, how are the building and furnishing authorities going to justify the taking of millions of the general fund, without an appropriation, for floors, doors, windows, mantels, wainscoting, chandeliers and many other permanent fixtures in the edifice? Each department and bureau chief has his room walls covered from ceiling to floor with polished mahogany, fastened there as firmly and irremovably as the brick or granite walls themselves. And yet, all that, as well as the frescoing and other decorations, is paid for as furnishings, out of the extra millions. "There is $40,000 worth of gold leaf in this building," says Superintendent Shumaker. The ceiling of the hall of the house of representatives is a dream of barbarian splendor in gold, and that, together with the gorgeous green and gold of the senate chamber, all comes under the head of "furnishings" to be paid for out of the surplus, regardless of the wishes of the legislature or the people.

It is a practical certainty that the real cost of their capitol is already not much less than $9,000,000, despite the boast with which campaign capital was to be made for the Penrose-McNichol organization, that the new state house, at its dedication on October 4, will have been "completed" for

"Please Smile AND Look Pleasant."

"When a woman says 'I am racked with pain,' the word 'racked' recalls the days when they stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with ropes and pulleys until the very joints cracked."

Fancy an attendant saying to the tortured woman, "Please smile and look pleasant."

And yet the woman "racked with pain" is expected to smile through her agony and to make home happy. She can't do it. It is against Nature. Generally speaking, the racking pains of ill-health such as headache, backache and "bearing-down pains" are due to derangements or disorders of the organs distinctly feminine. When this condition is removed the general health is restored and with health comes back the smile of happiness.

Any woman who is troubled with such pains should at once get a copy of the book "The Female Favorite Prescription," which contains many valuable hints and directions for the treatment of such ailments. Such books are treated as sacredly confidential.

"It affords me pleasure to relate the wonderful cures of my friends who have been afflicted with the Female Favorite Prescription. I have used them for many years, and I have found them to be all that you claim. They are my constant companions—once used, always kept."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 100 pages, over 200 illustrations and 1000 colored plates, and contains the most complete and reliable information for the doctor and the patient. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

a sum within the $4,000,000 appropriation.

The capitol has thus really cost more than double what had been expected by nearly every person in the state.

The law of 1885 authorized the superintendent of public grounds and buildings to buy furniture for the two branches of the legislature, and every general appropriation bill since then has contained a blank appropriation of whatever sum was expended for furniture. By an arrangement between the capitol commissioners and the commissioners of public grounds and buildings the former have been enabled to keep within their appropriation because the latter, who had an unlimited appropriation, expanded the word "furniture" to cover not only the bronze chandeliers and the cut glass shades, which are innumerable and the least of which cost $300, but the mahogany window casings, the carved mahogany mantels and the parquetry floors.

These are not furniture; they are a part of the building, and paying for them as furniture is not only a piece of jugglery, but it is a violation of the following proviso attached to the appropriations of 1903 and 1905 for the purchase of furniture:

"Provided that expenditures made under this section shall not be so construed as to authorize the commissioners of public grounds and buildings to complete the present capitol building."

Fairly construed, the appropriation laws have not given the board of public grounds and buildings the slightest authority to expend a dollar for "completing" the new capitol. In apparent jealousy of any interference with the capitol commission, a recent provision of the law expressly declares that the board of public grounds and buildings "shall make no expenditure to complete the capitol building." It is absurdly describing essential parts of the new edifice as "furniture" that the board has evaded the law, if a flat violation of this provision can be called an evasion.

Conceding, however, that upon an impeachment this board could escape conviction because of a confusion and uncertainty in the laws, how stands this transaction in the forum of public morals? Who clothed the building commission with unlimited power to expend the money in the treasury upon the new capitol while fixing a sum of $4,000,000 for its construction and completion? The machine legislature, who have so wantonly exercised this power as to swell the cost of the new capitol to nearly $10,000,000, while boasting their honesty and economy in keeping the cost below the $1,000,000 appropriation? Machine officials, every man of them. Not one Fusion Republican, not one Democrat, had the least connection with the scandal from first to last. It was not until an anti-machine treasurer entered upon his office and became a member of the board of public grounds and buildings that the people of Pennsylvania learned how grossly they had been deceived by men in office as to the whole history of the new capitol.

The Shanghaied Cowboys

Last night, this African Jake, had been many disturbances of the peace and had arrested many desperadoes. His weapons were first, his coolness, second, his quick and certain aim with his revolver. A banker once, desiring to send some gold dust to San Francisco, put it in charge of Jake and four others of the same kind, knowing that it would be safely transported. The dust was duly turned in, and the guard determined to do the town.

This was before San Francisco was visited by the great earthquake and fire, and there was a deal to be seen there. What a cowboy would be interested in was not palatial residences or libraries or scenic institutions. The party was rather inclined to sample the product of corn and rye distilled into whisky and after a three days' bout sank to sleep in a gin mill near the bay.

The ship Sarah Rose was sailing out of San Francisco bay, the rising sun shining on her stern. The captain, a short, cheery, ugly looking man, walked the quarter deck, getting her out of the harbor as best he could with three or four miserable looking men who knew very little about seamen's work. The truth is that Captain Barker was such a fiendish tyrant that the only way he could get a crew was to take what he could find in places frequented by sailors, get them drunk, carry them aboard and sail before they got sober.

"Mr. Hile," he said to the first mate, "start her up."

Mr. Hile commenced the rousing of a dozen or more men who were lying on deck by kicking them, each kick accompanied by an oath. When roused they would open their eyes, at first sleepily, but, seeing themselves at sea, would exhibit great surprise. After much effort they were all aroused and lined up on the deck for inspection.

"You're a fine looking lot of lubbers to ship for able seamen," growled the mate. "And you fellows over on the end of the line, I reckon the only ship you ever sailed in was a prairie schooner."

"You're dead right," said one of the men, just addressed, "but we'd like to learn the trade—at least some of us would—if you'll give us a chance."

"You'll have a chance, and if you don't make the best of it you'll learn seamanship at the rope's end."

With the second mate the first chose two watches and the lot were ordered forward. It was not ten minutes before the man who had spoken for "the end of the line" walked forward. He was followed at different distances by four others. The mate ordered him back, but the man paid no attention to the order. The mate seized a belaying pin and rushed at the mutinous sailor with it raised high. There was a report, and the belaying pin dropped on the deck. The mate had been shot through the wrist.

The first mutineer jessed on, and the next appeared before the mate, ordering him to throw up his hands, at the same time showing an enormous revolver up against his nose. The first man when within twenty feet of the captain shot off his right ear. The captain pulled a pistol, but the mutineer dropped it on the deck with a bullet before it could be fired.

"Do you know," roared the captain, "that this is mutiny, and mutiny is punished by hanging?"

"I know that you drugged me and my men when we were celebratin' and brought us off on to this ship against our will."

The second mate was below with half a dozen men, the only regular crew on the Sarah Rose, and depended on by the officers to enforce orders. They were a lot of desperadoes, but were well treated and well paid. Two of the "end of the line" men were at the forecabin gangway. As the mate, who on hearing the shots had rushed forward, ran up the gangway he found himself pinned below by a cover that had been put over the opening. He ran aft, calling to his men and reaching the after gangway, and saw a man leaning over it with a revolver. It exploded, and the mate's cap followed the ball. The men below drew back. Then a cover was run over the gangway and battened down. This left only the captain, the first mate and the few men who had been working out the vessel to oppose the five who had taken possession of the ship. Only the latter were armed.

"Gee," said the leader, "I venture to introduce myself as Jacob Russ, commonly called by those who love me for my gentle disposition Arizona Jake. As I do you, me and my friends would like to learn navigation, and we'll teach you how to treat respectable citizens in accordance with the law of the land. What trail do you follow, cap?"

The captain hesitating to reply, Jake tipped the end of his nose with a bullet, whereupon he admitted that he was bound for Puget sound.

"I think we'd prefer a short trip southward. You might land us somewhere about Santa Cruz."

The captain required a little more gentle coaxing before he made up his mind that the only course left him was to get rid of the tarts he had caught on the best possible terms. So it was agreed that he would run the ship to Santa Cruz, using the men he had on deck, who were to work under the revolvers of the mutineers. Under a fair wind and good weather the Sarah Rose was run into port, a boat was manned and the five mutineers were rowed by those of the crew who wished their freedom to shore. The zig was left at the dock and the five disappeared. MORRIS WYNNE

ALMSHOUSE ISSUE

The COMPILER begins this week its first installment of the Almshouse issue to be found on another column of this page. We ask every voter to carefully follow this unadorned, brief, true history of the management of the Almshouse under Republican rule as taken from the minute records of the institution. The new Democratic management and recovery of monies is the proof that the people did the right thing for their own interests in electing David A. Conover, Director of Poor last year. The continuation of the work begun by the Democratic Board calls for the hearty support of the two Democrat nominees for Directors of Poor Emanuel G. Trostle and Noah W. Sell by all citizens interested in good government at the Almshouse.

TAKE LAFEAN'S MEASURE.

The Lafean literature reproduced by the Star, labors to prove that Lafean is a faithful supporter of the Roosevelt form of Republicanism. Those who undertake to prove this proposition have a job on their hands equal to proving black is white. The way to take Lafean's measure is to follow the hint of Jere S. Black, find out whether Lafean was one of the 15th Pennsylvania Congressmen who entered into a caucus against President Roosevelt. The Congressman who has bolted the president, who has been serving the people against trusts and corporations, is the candidate to be bolted by the people.

MONEY IN POLITICS

Money in politics has done this country incalculable injury. It is to be hoped the moral wave of reform will drive money out of politics. The cause that comes with money to corrupt the people is the cause that should be crushed. In the last two Congressional campaigns the cause of Lafean won out in part at least by a most lavish expenditure of money. We do not know how much money

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains,—inflamed joints and stiff muscles,—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine which has permanently cured thousands of cases. For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7, C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Lafean personally put into these campaigns, nor how much the Republican National Committee contributed to the State Machine. If there was no other reason for the defeat of D. F. Lafean for Congress, the lavish use of money by his campaigners two and four years ago would be the best of reasons for every Democrat and citizen interested in good government and driving money out of politics to cast their vote for Horace Keeseey, Esq. for Congress.

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT

The Machine and Lafean have failed to fool the people of Pennsylvania with President Roosevelt's visit last week. The President is too big a man to be caught by the snare of the machine. They can bring an honest President to the dedication of a capitol job but they can't make him express himself favorably to the job or the machine who have led to the people about the cost of the building. President Roosevelt in his Harrisburg speech made personal allusions to Pennsylvania's capable Senator Knox but never referred to the incapable Penrose. Lafean can get the same President to stop over and see the York Fair, but the man is too big to open his lips on political matters. His avoidance of politics in Pennsylvania speaks eloquently of a rotten machine and its slaves whom he will not stoop to serve.

TO MAKE REFORM COMPLETE

Every citizen interested in the defeat of the machine in Pennsylvania, "the corrupt and criminal combination," in laying bare the capitol scandal, in establishing equal rights in place of special privileges should remember that to make the victory of reform complete, not only Emery, Black, Creasy and Green must win out this year in old Adams but also David H. Guise, Democratic candidate for Legislature. The next executive and legislative must work hand in hand for reform. The issue is as plain as the sun in a cloudless sky. On the one side David H. Guise stands pledged to support all reform legislation of the Democratic and Lincoln party and he has been true to every pledge made. On the other side stands John R. Bittinger who helped to send Big Boss Penrose to the U. S. Senate and who will support all machine legislation put on the calendar.

BIG AND LITTLE BOSSES

We have the words of Lewis Emery Jr., for the fact that the Pa. Railroad and Standard Oil give their orders to Big Boss Penrose, who in turn gives his orders to the little boss in each county of the state. The little boss must find in each county candidates for the Legislature who will obey the orders of the Big Boss and the corporations back of him after elected. All of which means locally that very little Boss Boobah has stood sponsor for John R. Bittinger's faithfulness to the machine and corporations. Penrose can rely upon the very little boss' assurances for he knows that John R. has been tried and not found wanting in that he once voted for the incapable Penrose for the U. S. Senate and for the vicious legislation of the same session.

WHY A VERY LITTLE BOSS EXISTS

Adams County Republicans might have been rid of its very little Boss Boobah Me Too Postmaster if Lafean had been more interested in the people and less interested in the preservation of the Penrose machine in Adams County. Boobah had to be saved by his job by Lafean as part of the machine, he had to be saved to be the medium for orders in the county, to do the dirty work for the machine. Lafean saved the neck of Postmaster McIlhenney even if he had to answer to every Republican voter of the county. Republicans can get rid of the man this year who gave life to the very little Boss.

The Royal Month and the Royal Disease.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula — its buncches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance — without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, — consumption.

THE CAPITOL GRAFT.

If the people of this state want the Capitol graft exposed, if they want to know where the nine millions of dollars went, if they want the wrong done punished, there is only one way to accomplish this and that is by the election of the Fusion ticket and a reform legislature. On page 7 appears a very clear presentation of the only way the Capitol graft can be probed. On page 8 will be found another article showing the incalculable good to the people of hitching up such a team as Berry and Creasy. These are the points for the voter to study and cast his ballot for the interests of the whole people.

There will be preaching in the Salem U. B. church on next Sunday morning. This will be the last church service before the annual conference which convenes in Baltimore Oct. 16.

THE ALMS-HOUSE ISSUE

PRESENTED BY DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

Minutes of the Board of Directors of Poor Containing the Information as to the Issue.

The Democratic County Convention after nominating a ticket on Aug. 6 adopted resolutions condemning the Republican officials in control of the Alms-house for years past, under whose management a condition resulted which was most deplorable, and commending and endorsing the Democratic officials who brought about a change of management and collected from former officials more than $2,000. The Democratic County Convention called for the fullest investigation and information.

The resolutions applicable to the Alms-house issue are as follows:

5. We especially commend and endorse the Democratic Board of Directors of the poor, and their officials, for their prompt and complete change of management of Alms-house affairs. We commend them for calling to account the Republican officials in control of the Alms-house for years past, and for their exposure of the system of graft therein prevailing. We commend them for collecting from these officials more than two thousand dollars over and above the amounts which these officials exhibited to the County Auditors as the amounts in their hands.

6. We insist that the work of investigation instituted by the present Board of Poor Directors be continued until all shortages are made good and the results be exhibited to the people of the county and to the proper prosecuting officials for their action. We feel that the voters of the county will never agree to the re-instatement of the old regime, which has been tried and found wanting, but will endorse the two honest, capable and upright men nominated by this convention today in order that the work of investigation instituted by the present Board may not be halted or thwarted.

7. We deplore the death of David A. Conover, one of the present Board of Poor Directors. In his death the county has lost an honest and capable official, whose whole soul was in the correction of abuses existing at the Alms-house and the collection of the moneys withheld and returned by former officials.

The Democratic County Committee organizing on Aug. 11, passed among other resolutions the following:

1st. That we heartily endorse the resolutions passed by the recent Democratic County Convention, and join therein in demanding that the graft uncovered at the Alms-house be fully published for the information of all citizens, and that the same be laid before the District Attorney and the County Detective for their action.

So that every voter may know the conditions that existed and go to the polls with full information, the COMPILER begins this week a reprinting of the minutes of the Board of Poor Directors, which fully explains the situation.

Minutes of Board of Poor Directors—Adams County.

May 1st, 1906.—At the meeting in the arbitration room E. E. Slaybaugh, former Treasurer at Alms-house, was called before the Board and questioned about interest on money due the county received from the sale of some land and also about the Malaun fund. Mr. Slaybaugh admitted that he had received $12 interest, being 3 per cent, on the $200 received from Andrew Utz for the sale of some land, and paid October 7th, 1902, which he had kept for his own use, confessing that he did wrong and agreeing to pay it over. The Board then decided to accept the $12, which Mr. Slaybaugh paid to C. A. Weirick, present Treasurer. Mr. Slaybaugh was then asked about the $76.74 and the $240 said to have been retained by the Board for the support of Eli Malaun and his son in the insane building. He denied ever having received either of these two sums. Wm. Hersh, Esq., former Attorney at Alms-house, was then called before the Board and shown his own statement in writing which showed that the Board retained $76.74 in 1902, being part of the proceeds of the money paid into Court by Henry Hantz, and also $240 retained by the Board, being amount received for real estate sold to Noah F. Hersh, at York Springs, May 5th, 1902. Mr. Wm. Hersh partly admitted that he had in his hands and would have to pay the $76.74, but denied positively that he had ever received or knew anything about the $240. After some discussion the matter was left in the hands of J. L. Williams, Esq., Attorney for the Board, to further investigate and collect interest on same from the party in whose hands the money was.

May 14th 1906. Special meeting of the Board called by the President and in the office of J. L. Williams, Esq., to take action on the Malaun fund, in the hands of Wm. Hersh, Esq., former Attorney at Alms-house. Members all present. J. L. Williams, Attorney for the Board, stated that he had called on Noah F. Hersh at York Springs who informed him that he Noah F. Hersh had paid the $240 purchase money of Eli Malaun's real estate to Wm. Hersh, Attorney. Mr. Williams further stated that Mr. Hersh now admitted that he had the $240 and was willing to pay it over.

The discussion then arose to the rate of interest to be charged on this fund as well as on the $76.74 retained by Mr. Hersh in January 1902. Mr. Conover moved that we charge 3 per cent interest, which was put and lost. Mr. Irvin then moved that 5 per cent be charged on the $240. This motion carried. Mr. Hersh was then called before the Board and stated that he had in his hands the $76.74 and the $240, as well as $72 interest money received for four years on $600 certificate of deposit. Mr. Hersh then asked that the rate of interest be fixed at 3 per cent., that he thought this was fair and if he had paid it over at the time he had received it and the Directors had put it in bank at interest they would have received only 3 per cent. After a private consultation among the Directors it was agreed that the rate of interest should be 4 1-2 per cent. on both sums. A calculation was then made and approved by Mr. Hersh showing interest on the $76.74 to be $14.74, and on the $240 $32.40, and the $72 interest on the $600 made a total of $435.88. A credit has then given Mr. Hersh for $58.12, which he had paid out for funeral expenses, taxes, &c., leaving a balance due from him of $377.76. This amount he paid by giving a check to J. L. Williams, attorney for Joseph E. Kelly, G. W. Irvin and D. A. Conover, administrators of the estate of Eli Malaun, deceased, which was then deposited in the Citizens' Trust Company of Gettysburg.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

—Miss Mollie McCurdy, recently of this place but now of Bellefonte, while visiting in Brookline, Mass., last week fell and broke one of her arms in two places.

L. M. Buehler Guarantees It.

Wherever there is no taint of incurable disease in the blood to complicate the case, Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia will cure those diseases.

L. M. Buehler, the popular druggist, is so confident of this that he will give his personal guarantee with every package of the specific he sells, to refund the money if it does not cure.

To induce the people of Gettysburg and neighboring towns to try this wonderful remedy, he is making a special introductory offer of a regular fifty cent bottle, containing sixty doses, at half price, 25 cents. And with every bottle goes his guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not cure.

Dr. Howard's specific is not a "cure-all."

But it is the one remedy you need if you suffer with constipation, indigestion, headaches or any disorder of the stomach and bowels. Mr. W. S. Green, a well-known business man of Crown Point, N. Y., wrote the following letter very recently: "Nearly ten years ago I was a mere shadow, and, according to the judgment of quite a number of doctors, my end was in sight. My troubles reduced my weight from 170 to 115 pounds. Finally an eminent physician prescribed Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and I soon improved. My weight went to about 150 pounds, and has stayed around there."

Birthday Party.

A very pleasant and enjoyable birthday party was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Stough in honor of their son Clarence's 14th birthday. After social conversation, music and out-door games, the guests were invited to the dining room where the table groaned beneath its weight of refreshments of all kinds. THE LEADERS

Without Question

This store has never been so well stocked as now. While this applies to every department, we especially desire to emphasize in this advertisement the Ladies' and Misses' Ready-to-wear Department in the line of

Suits, Skirts and Coats

In placing our orders for these lines we especially looked out first for style, quality and workmanship, and then for the best price that can be produced at without skimp. It is so easy to skimp a garment in cut. A quarter of a yard or a few inches saved in cut, here and there, is a great element in a factory where thousands of garments are cut, and while the factory which uses the skimp cut has its savings of thousands of dollars, the woman purchasing the garment has but the small saving in price on one garment, and this saving is absolutely sure to deprive the garment of the style and swing it ought to have. "Wooltex" garments are cut to please the women who will wear the garments. Rely upon it that "Wooltex" garments are fuller in sweep, and more generous in cut, than most others. While our Coats and suits are not all made at the "Wooltex" factories we insist upon the cut and style being along "Wooltex" lines. In order to give an idea of the variety we show in Ladies' Coats we give several descriptions, picking at random, at the prices here named.

$3.40.—A Tourist Coat of good weight in Herring Bone Tweed, rightly made in correct style.

Coats at $3.75, $4.40.

$10.00.—Black and Castor Tourist, corded strap effects, back and front, collar trimmed in braid and velvet, cuffs to match.

Black, Castor, Navy and Fancy effects in Tourist Coats at $11.00, $12.50, $13.50, $14.00.

$15.00.—Black, Castor, Navy, Green, fine Kersey and Fancy all wool Tweeds. Tourist shapes and Wooltex Belmore. Yoke formed round by one inch straps. Three one inch straps, double rows of stitching, down back from yoke front straps from shoulder, D. B., satin lined shoulders and sleeves. Stitched velvet collar and cuffs. A winner.
